Numb. 3355

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday January 3. to Thursday January 6 1697.

Kensington, January 4.

THE following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace for the North-Riding of the County of York, was preſented to His Majeſty by ſeveral Gentlemen, Members of Parliament, and Juſtices of the Peace of the ſaid Riding, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Falconberg, their Cuſtos Rotulorum.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace for the North-Riding of the County of York.

Dread SIR,

WE do with the greateſt Joy Congratulate Your Majeſties ſafe Return from the many Dangers You have been expoſed to, and do think we cannot ſufficiently admire Your Valour, and Conduct, that has procured us ſo Honourable a Peace. We do beg Leave to aſſure Your Majeſty, we will in our ſeveral Stations, uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to maintain and preſerve it, and to prevent all Attempts of Your Majeſties Enemies againſt Your Royal Perſon and Government.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Plympton was preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Thomas Trevor, and Courtenay Croker Eſq; their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The Humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Bayliff, Burgeſſes, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Plimpton-Earle in the County of Devon.

THE Silence of us Your moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects hitherto may be Excuſable from our Aſtoniſhment at ſuch a Revolution, ſuch a Confederation, ſuch a War, and ſuch a Peace, as Your Majeſty has carried on to perfection.

When we call to mind the many Royal Voyages and Campagnes Your Majeſty hath made, and to how many Deaths, from ſecret and open Deſigns, Your Ineſtimable Life hath been expoſed, we find our ſelves under the greateſt Obligation of Thanks and Praiſes to Almighty God for its Preſervation.

When we look abroad we cannot but Obſerve that Your Majeſty hath raiſed England's Proweſs and Honour, and led forth Her Forces to Noble and Renowned Atchievements, ſo that the Kingdom never made ſuch a Figure in the World as in this Your Reign.

But when we look at home, and conſider how Your Majeſty hath Reſcued our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, (Intereſts moſt valuable to us as Men and Chriſtians) we acknowledge our ſelves indebted to Your Tranſcendent Courage, Wiſdom and Goodneſs, for the greateſt Bleſſings that Subjects can receive from a Prince.

It is our Duty and no leſs our Intereſt to make all the Returns we are capable of, by Doing and Undergoing what is within our power for the Defence and Maintaining of Your Sacred Perſon and Rightful Government.

God grant that Your Majeſty who has given us Deliverance and Peace, may have Quiet, Safety, and a Proſperous Courſe of Glory for many years, Reigning over a Remembring and (conſequently) Grateful and Obedient People.

The humble Addreſs of the Clergy of Rocheſter, was preſented to His Majeſty by the Dean and Prebendaries of Rocheſter, being introduced by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of Canterbury.

The humble Addreſs of the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Glouceſter, was preſented to His Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Chief Burgeſſes, Freemen, and other the Inhabitants of the Borough of Sudbury in Suffolk, was preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Thomas Bernardiſton Bar. and Sir John Robinſon Kt. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Suffolk.

All which Addreſſes His Majeſty received very Graciouſly.

Genoua, Dec 22. N. S. Sir Lambert Blackwell, His Majeſty of Great-Britain's Envoy Extraordinary to the Great Duke of Tuſcany, and to the Republick of Genoua, is arrived at Savona, and expected here in few days.

Leghorne, Dec. 29. The Great Prince and Princeſs and their Courts, are come to Piſa, in order to paſs the Carneval here. By a Bark from Algiers we have an account, that the Ships of that Government have lately taken and brought in two Portugueſe Ships laden with Sugar.

Venice, Dec. 27. The Earl of Mancheſter continues incognito till his Houſe be in a readineſs to receive him. The French Ambaſſador has ſent his Excellency a Compliment, and deſires to Viſit him, as ſoon as 'tis with his Lordſhips conveniency. Divers Officers are come hither to offer their Service to this Republick; and ſome of theſe have already received Commiſſions from the Senate to Liſt ſuch Men, as are on the occaſion of the Peace disbanded in Germany. This week was launched at the Arſenal here a Ship of War of between 70 and 80 Guns, and another will be launched in few days. The Advices from Turkey ſay, the Sultan has been perſuaded by his principal Miniſters to lay aſide all thoughts of Peace at preſent; when they cannot expect to make it but upon very Diſhonourable Terms, by reaſon of their unfortunate Campagne the laſt year, and that it would be better to ſtay for a more favourable opportunity to ſet ſuch a Negotiation on foot; and that the Sultan had accordingly diſpatched Orders to all his Baſſa's and Governors of Provinces, to raiſe all the Men they can, to reinforce his Armies againſt the next Summer.

Warſaw, Dec. 28. The King of Poland, according to our laſt Letters from Cracow, intended to ſet out from thence yeſterday, on his Journey hither; Whether the Primate will wait upon his Majeſty at his arrival here, is not yet known, though the temper he ſeems to be yet in, makes it thought he will not. The Prince Sapieha, Great General of Lithuania, is expected in this City the next week, where divers of the Nobility are already arrived to attend his Majeſty and